THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

SALUTATION AND COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Grant, O merciful God, that your Church, being gathered together in unity by your Holy Spirit, may show forth your power among all peoples, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

THE FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 51:1–6

A reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness, you that seek the LORD. Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug. Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you; for he was but one when I called him, but I blessed him and made him many. For the LORD will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places, and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

Listen to me, my people, and give heed to me, my nation; for a teaching will go out from me, and my justice for a light to the peoples. I will bring near my deliverance swiftly, my salvation has gone out and my arms will rule the peoples; the coastlands wait for me, and for my arm they hope. Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and those who live on it will die like gnats; but my salvation will be for ever, and my deliverance will never be ended.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE GRADUAL

Psalm 138

Jerome Webster Meachan

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole /heart; *
before the gods I will sing your /praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your /Name, *
because of your love and /faithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your /Name *
and your word above all /things.
- 4 When I called, you /answered me; *
you increased my strength with/in me.
- 5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O /LORD, *
when they have heard the words of your /mouth.

THE EPISTLE

Romans 12:1–8

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 16:13–20

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

ANTHEM AT THE OFFERTORY: Christ Is Our Cornerstone

Philip W.J. Stopford (1852–1924)

*Christ is our cornerstone,
on him alone we build;
with his true saints alone
the courts of heav'n are filled:
on his great love our hopes we place
of present grace and joys above.
O then with hymns of praise
these hallowed courts shall ring;
our voices we will raise
the Three in One to sing;
and thus proclaim in joyful song,
both loud and long, that glorious name.*

*Here, gracious God,
do thou forevermore draw nigh;
accept each faithful vow,
and mark each suppliant sigh;
in copious show'r on all who pray
each holy day thy blessings pour.*

*Here may we gain from heav'n
the grace which we implore;
and may that grace, once giv'n,
be with us evermore,
until that day when all the blest
to endless rest are called away.*

Sunday Evenings at Christ Church

Sundays at 5 pm, starting TODAY

This fall, we are remaking Sunday evenings into a community night with food, faith formation, and worship for all ages. The evening will start at 5:00 pm in the Great Hall for a parish supper. After dinner (5:20–5:30), people will split up to go to their respective programs. For children, the Choir School of Macon will have its rehearsals. Youth will have EYC in the Youth Suite. Adults will have a choice between the Alpha Course, a study/discussion group facilitated by Evey and Jonathan Wetherbee, each week covering a different topic related to living out our faith, and a knitting class in the Parlor. At 6:30, you are invited to join us for Choral Evensong on the first Sunday of every month (starting in October) or a brief Compline service on all other Sundays.

Each evening begins with a shared meal, we watch the talk on video that lasts about 25 minutes, and then discuss. It’s a class where there are no stupid questions and people are free to explore and wrestle with what they believe. To sign up or learn more email Cynthia@christchurchmacon.com.

Alpha Marriage Course Beginning This Fall

Wednesdays at 6 pm, September 9 – October 21

We are offering the Alpha Marriage Course for anyone who would like to strengthen their relationship. Facilitated by Jamie and Ben Walden, this course is an opportunity for a “date night” while you work together on your marriage. Each couple will have their own table for two where they will be served dinner while they watch the talk. Throughout the talk there are periods for each couple to have private conversations between themselves using their course workbook as a guide.

This course will be on Wednesday evenings beginning on September 9th and going through October 21st. The evening will take 2 hours and we are planning to begin at 6:00 if that works well for the group. To learn more or to sign up please email Cynthia@christchurchmacon.com.

Parish Picnic

Sunday, September 13 from 4 pm to 7 pm

Even though it's still hot outside, fall is right around the corner and that means it's time for the parish picnic! This year's picnic will be held on Sunday, September 13 starting at 4 pm. The Sumralls will be hosting at their home at 865 Fieldstone Drive. Stay tuned for more information about what you can bring. The picnic is always one of the highlights of the year and an excellent chance to connect with and get to know new people, so be sure to mark your calendars.

Safeguarding God's Children Training

Sunday, September 20 after the 10:30 am service

An up-to-date Safeguarding God's Children certification is required for all clergy, staff, vestry members, Sunday school teachers, and volunteers aged 16 or older who work with children or youth. Once completed, a Safeguarding certification is valid for three years before needing to be renewed. An online version of this class is available at SafeChurchAtlanta.org/Training. For those who would like to complete the training in-person, there will be a training in the Cloister Room on Sunday, September 20 following the end of the 10:30a service. Please email Rachel Horkan (Rachel@ChristChurchMacon.com) or Hope Westervelt (Hope@ChristChurchMacon.com) for more details or to register. Lunch is included for all participants.

MINISTRY OF THE MONTH: AUGUST

Granito de Mostaza Dairy Farm, Los Arabos, Cuba

The Christ Church Outreach Committee has designated the Granito de Mostaza Dairy Farm in Los Arabos, Cuba as the Ministry of the Month for August. Owned by the Episcopal Diocese of Cuba since 2008, Granito de Mostaza (which means “Mustard Seed” in Spanish) is an extremely important ministry of the Episcopal Church there. For the past eight years I have had the pleasure of working with Rev. Juan Carlos Diez Moreira of the Diocese of Cuba, the farm’s administrator. The only entity owned by the Diocese of Cuba that has the legal right to contract with the government to sell agricultural products, Granito de Mostaza is one of the few ways the Diocese has to earn income from commercial activity. Its revenue pays for almost all of the community programming in which the Los Arabos churches engage and for the salaries of the churches’ parish administrators.

Granito de Mostaza played a key role in assisting the local community throughout the COVID-19 pandemic and continues to adapt to the subsequent economic crises which have wracked the island. Widespread food shortages have caused the farm to sell off most of its cattle in order to prevent hungry thieves from butchering them, and the farm’s operation has shifted more towards agriculture - crops of sesame, squash, and pineapple now form the majority of production. Pineapple in particular is viewed as the path towards self-sufficiency, as Los Arabos is now one of the leading producers of pineapple in the country. At the same time, Rev. Juan Carlos has invested heavily in cottage industry, creating a system for preserving fruit and producing cooking oil, vine-gar, jams, and jellies. Through its efforts and innovations, Granito de Mostaza has saved lives and helped to ease the stress of food shortages among the local population.

This work has only become more important since the ousting of Venezuelan dictator Nicolas Maduro by the United States earlier this year. The loss of Venezuelan oil, needed to keep the island’s electrical grid running, had been compounded by the imposition of an almost total blockade of the island by the United States and further sanctions against its government. A recent report by The Friends of the Episcopal Church in Cuba reveals the dire reality faced by Cubans today. The current government salary (paid to ~80% of the population) is $16 USD/month, with pensions for retirees $6/month. Hyper-inflation continues to run rampant, and most goods are un-affordable. The current price of gasoline is $25 USD/gal, and $18/gal for diesel. Traffic on the island has become virtually non-existent, though electric vehicles have seen a surge in usage. In some parts of the countryside, hunger has become so bad that horses and even cats are being slaughtered for food. The government has ceased providing the monthly guaranteed rations of food, leaving hundreds of thousands without any guaranteed source of food. Through it all, electricity has become almost non-existent. Blackouts in Havana now last 22-23 hours/day, and some places in the country have no power at all. This means no fans, no AC, and no internet. Tourism, the main source of income for the island, has become almost non-existent due to shortages of jet fuel and the afore-mentioned shortages that affect tourist resorts too.

The current situation has made travel to the island and the transmission of material aid extremely difficult. As such, we ask for your prayers for the people of Cuba in lieu of material or financial support from Christ Church as Ministry of the Month. For those interested in learning more about Cuba, the Diocese of Atlanta’s involvement there, and more ways of getting involved, please feel free to contact me.
